Unusual is a DJ and producer from Munich. Melodic techno, tech house and progressive, built on the idea that music and image should tell the same story.

The debut single "Stop Talking" was followed by "Not Normal", "Push It" and "Freak", the last two together with Dennis Reif. Unusual made his live debut in July 2025 at the Warsteiner Church at Parookaville Festival. Echelon Festival, thaiBREAK in Thailand, Ministry of Sound in London and a night at Eden Club in Ibiza followed.

Since July 2026 he runs "Uncommon Music", his weekly radio show: one hour of melodic, progressive and driving electronic music every Thursday.

Unusual is a DJ and producer from Munich. Melodic techno, tech house and progressive — built on the idea that music and image should tell the same story.

Almost every track starts with a real situation. The debut single "Stop Talking" came out of a party night where a guest spent hours explaining his life to a woman, until she said: "Stop talking. I'm dancing." It was followed by "Not Normal", "Push It" and "Freak", the last two together with Dennis Reif.

Unusual made his live debut in July 2025 at the Warsteiner Church at Parookaville Festival. Echelon Festival in Bad Aibling followed, along with an Eklisso label showcase in Memmingen, thaiBREAK in Bangkok and on Koh Mak, and Ministry of Sound in London. In the summer of 2026 he played Parookaville again, Eden Club in Ibiza, and the Molecule Stage at Echelon Festival.

Since July 2026 he runs "Uncommon Music", his weekly radio show: one hour of melodic, progressive and driving electronic music every Thursday, selected and sequenced by Unusual. Episodes are released on YouTube, with a rollout to further platforms in preparation.

Unusual stands for productions that land, and for shows where sound and staging do not run side by side but mean the same thing.
