Melodic Techno & Energetic Tech — Munich

AS OF OCTOBER 2026

Unusual is a DJ and producer from Munich. Melodic techno and energetic tech — and the ambition that the music and the visuals tell the same story.

Almost every track starts from something that actually happened. The debut single “Stop Talking” came out of a party night in which a guest spent hours explaining his life to a woman, until she said: “Stop talking. I’m dancing.” “Not Normal” followed, then “Push It” and “Freak” on Kontor Records.

Unusual made his live debut in July 2025 at Parookaville Festival. Echelon Festival in Bad Aibling followed, an Eklisso label showcase in Memmingen, thaiBREAK on Koh Mak and Ministry of Sound in London. In the summer of 2026 he played Parookaville again, Eden Club on Ibiza and Echelon Festival.

Since July 2026 he has hosted “Uncommon Music”, his weekly radio show: one hour of melodic, progressive and driving electronic music every Thursday, selected and sequenced by Unusual. Episodes are released on YouTube, with a rollout to further platforms in preparation.

Unusual stands for productions that land, and for shows where sound and staging do not run side by side but mean the same thing.
